

Lenys Camacho

Upper Real Estate Management – President

Lenys has more than 15 years of experience in business administration, real estate management, and the brokerage industry. She has directed all phases of real estate property operations in South Florida including Multifamily, Broken Condos, Homeowner Association, Condo Association, and Master Communities.

In 2017, she started to provide real estate management to foreign national's investors on their real estate portfolio and founded Upper Real Estate Management to provide property management and brokerage services.

Lenys holds a Law Degree from Andrés Bello Catholic University in Venezuela practiced in the areas of corporate and estate law. She earned a master's degree in International Real Estate from FIU Hollo School of Real Estate. Besides, Lenys holds a master's degree in Business Administration and has obtained a Project Management Certification from FAU. She is a mother of two young bright girls and is an avid cross-fit enthusiast.

Licenses & Designations:

- Licensed Florida Broker
- Florida Community Association Manager
- CAM Office
- CPM Candidate

Memberships:

- REALTOR® Commercial Alliance
- Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM)
- Prospanica Lifetime Member (AKA NSHMBA)

Community:

- 2021 Miami Commercial Governor
- 2021 IREM South Florida VP Broward & Legislative Chair
- South Florida Chapter Board of Directors of the National Society of Hispanic MBAs (now Prospanica) since 2011, Past President of the Board for this organization.